

Urban

Collinsville Parks Ecology Club

The Urban Ecology Club is a program offered by Collinsville Parks and Recreation for all ages to have fun in nature and learn along the way.

Activities include conservation projects, animal care, fishing, gardening, nature crafts, hikes, archery, team building games, goat-scaping, and much more.

Our Mission:

We bring people together to create a sustainable existence for people, planet, and prosperity.

Our Vision:

We want to foster awareness and creativity about urban ecology that will promote sustainable practices and encourage a lifetime of conservation stewardship, and connectivity to our urban community and ecological future.
