Marco's Pizza / GCS Credit Union Armed Robbery – UPDATE

Collinsville Police Department investigators, in cooperation with the Federal Bureau of Investigations (FBI), successfully identified an individual responsible for the armed robberies that took place at Marco's Pizza and GCS Credit Union in Collinsville, on March 28, 2019 and March 30, 2019 respectively.

Pursuant to the investigation, the following individual was taken into custody:

Larry J. Rhines
Black Male 22 yrs of age
Collinsville, IL

Charges on Rhines have been filed in Federal Court.

The Collinsville Police Department expresses its gratitude to the FBI and the several other law enforcement agencies in both Illinois and Missouri, who, through a collaborative effort, helped to bring these cases to a successful conclusion.

All persons are considered innocent until proven guilty in court.

Investigation is continuing.
